

Responsibility: Something you should do or take care of, like tidying your toys or helping at home.

Role: The job or part you have in a group, like being a helper or a team member.

Friendship: When people care about each other, are kind, and like spending time together.

Respect: Being kind and polite, and listening to others.

Online safety: Staying safe when using the internet, like not talking to strangers and telling an adult if something feels wrong.

Rights: Things that everyone should have, like being safe, learning, and being treated fairly.

Stereotype: When people think all others are the same in a group, even if it's not true.

-
-
-
-

How can you be a good friend?

What can you do to stay safe online?

What are your rights?

How can you challenge unfair stereotypes?

