

continent	a large area of land made up of different countries.
equator	an imaginary line that goes around the Earth.
climate	describes the weather over many months
compass directions	tell you where something is located - you find north first.

- What are the 7 continents of the world?
- What is a continent?
- What continent are we in?
- Which continent is the coldest? How do you know?
- Explain why a compass is useful/ Name the 4 compass points.
- Describe what the world map shows.

