

immigration	people moving from their country to live in another country permanently migration	the movement of people from one place to another, often for living or work.
push factors	reasons that force someone to leave their country
pull factors	reasons that attract someone to living in a new country

- What does migration/immigration mean?
- Why was there a huge increase in migration after 1945?
- What are some of the reasons why someone might choose to immigrate?
- Explain the difference between push and pull factors.
- How has immigration impacted Stratford since 2011?

