

capital city	the place where politicians who make up government meet to discuss how to run the country
population	the number of people living in an area
landmark	a feature of land (man-made or natural) that has special meaning physical feature	something that is a part of land that is made by people. It does not already exist by itself natural feature	something that is a part of land, made by people

- Where is London located?
- Why is the city of London important?
- Explain why tourists visit landmarks.
- Name 3 landmarks
- Why does London have a lot of parks?

