

Characteristics: The things that make someone or something what they are, like how they look or act.

Personal qualities: Good things about a person, like being kind, brave, or helpful.

Online community: A group of people who talk, share, or play together on the internet.

Responsibility: Something you should do or take care of, and being trusted to do it well.

Rights: Things everyone should have, like being safe, learning, and being treated fairly.

Screen time: The amount of time you spend using screens like TVs, tablets, or computers.

Safety: Being protected from harm or danger.

Unique: Being special and different from everyone else.

- Can you describe yourself and your positive qualities?
- How can you make safe choices online?
- How can you balance your screen time?
- How can you communicate safely and kindly?

