

community	a group of people who share a place or interest
faith	strong belief or trust in something secularism	being fair to all religions and non-religious people
tolerance	respecting people who have different beliefs

Big Question: How do different beliefs and values help people live together in a community?

- Who belongs to our community?
- How do different people show their beliefs?
- How do our beliefs and values help people live together peacefully?
- What beliefs and values do you hold? How are they similar and different to your friends?
