

bullying	when someone is mean to another person over and over on purpose, making them feel hurt and scared diversity	everyone is different and unique, and that these differences make the world interesting and special disability	when they have a physical or mental difference that makes it harder for them to do everyday things, like learning, walking, or seeing discrimination	treating someone unfairly or worse than others because of who they are, such as their race, gender, or religion
stereotype	a belief about a particular group of people or things that is often inaccurate or unfair, based on assumptions rather than reality
prejudice	having a negative opinion about someone before you really know them, just because they belong to a certain group

- What is bullying?
- What types of bullying are there?
- What can you do to stop bullying?
- What are protected characteristics?
- What does diversity mean?
- Can you think of any examples of prejudice, discrimination and stereotype?

